PRESS RELEASE

November 11, 2015

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

TO: ALL MEDIA

Oldfield Myers Apke & Payne Law Group, Ltd. is pleased to announce that William Joseph Bradley has joined the firm in the practice of law. On November 5, 2015, Mr. Bradley was formally sworn in to the Illinois Bar by Illinois Supreme Court Justice, Lloyd A. Karmeier.

Bill was born in Ann Arbor, Michigan in 1989. He attended the University of Michigan in Ann Arbor where he graduated Magna Cum Laude in 2011 with a Bachelor of Arts in Economics and German. Bill then attended Washington University in St. Louis School of Law. While at Washington University, Bill was an Associate Notes Editor on the Washington University Jurisprudence Review and was the founder and president of the Tax Law Society. Bill graduated in 2014 with his Juris Doctorate Degree and then returned in the fall of 2014 to acquire a Masters of Law in Taxation. Bill graduated from the Masters of Law in Taxation program at the top of the class.

Mr. Bradley concentrates his practice in the areas of tax law, corporate law, business planning, partnerships, and tax controversy.

With the addition of Mr. Bradley, Oldfield Myers Apke & Payne Law Group, Ltd. now has nine attorneys practicing in most areas of law-including divorce, real estate, litigation, business planning, estate planning, criminal law and probate-from their offices in Effingham and Vandalia.
